Metro Meals on Wheels Annual Report – Summer 2015

Meet Elaine and Hear Her Meals on Wheels Story

Elaine lives independently in her home in Plymouth – the same home where she raised five children, where she's lived for more than 50 years. She still enjoys frequent visits from her children, and her grandchildren, and she walks her dog Molly around the neighborhood two or three times each day. You could say she's grown quite fond of where she lives, and she credits Meals on Wheels for helping her stay there.

After being diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease in 2006, Elaine remains in great physical health, but has some problems with her short-term memory. While she's able to get out and about for walks and can get around the house without problems, the meals she receives each week provide just the amount of extra help she needs to remain living happily in her own home.

"Meals on Wheels is a life-saver for me since I don't drive and there are no close stores around," says Elaine.

"It allows me to stay in my home for a while longer."

Why she signed up to receive meals:

Meal preparation is one area where Elaine can use a little extra help. Getting to the grocery store can be difficult, as can remembering all the ingredients she needs to prepare a meal.

Why she loves Meals on Wheels: The food! Both the quality and the quantity, as she usually has enough food for two meals that day. She also enjoys visiting with the delivery volunteers.

Favorite meal: Turkey, mashed potatoes and gravy, and peas. And any dessert!

Other benefits: Independence is important to Elaine. Her husband Don died when he was 50, and she's lived on her own for the 35 years since. While she loves having her kids around, it's not practical for them to always have to shop or cook for her as they each are busy with work and their own families.

Like many other meal recipients, Elaine gets just what she needs to maintain a healthy life at home: nutritious and tasty meals with the added benefit of social interaction. With support from her community, she's able to live exactly where she wants to live, the only place she's called home in the last 50 years.

You Make the Meals on Wheels Advantage Possible

In today's world, getting food delivered to your home is as simple as a couple of taps on your smartphone. While this development is great news for those of us who lead busy lifestyles and have some disposable income, most of us would agree that everyday food delivery is a luxury for the average individual.

But for Meals on Wheels recipients, the delivery of daily food is not a luxury. It can be the difference between living at home and moving to a nursing home. The healthy meals delivered to Meals on Wheels recipients may also provide that extra bit of nutrition needed to avoid readmittance to the hospital. The volunteer delivering that meal may be the one who calls an ambulance in the event of a fall or other emergency.

The fact remains that Meals on Wheels is the only service in the Twin Cities that is capable of providing the daily delivery of healthy meals to seniors and people with disabilities in need.

There is no way that this service could exist without the thousands of volunteers who deliver these meals every day and those who financially support this service.

You Make the Meals on Wheels Advantage Possible

You make delivering the combination of nutritious food and friendly interaction, what we call “the Meals on Wheels Advantage,” possible. With a senior population expected to double in Minnesota by 2040, we recently embarked on a new strategic plan which will help ensure that the local Meals on Wheels system has the capacity to serve our seniors for years to come. We’ll be working on strategies to execute our collective mission with our program partners: to lead the effort to ensure that individuals in our community receive the nutritious meals and the human connection they need to enable them to live independently.

As our board of directors approved this new strategic direction this spring with input from our 32 member programs, it’s the perfect time to share some of the highlights of what’s to come with you, our supporters.

More access to healthy foods

As more and more seniors with stretched financial means find themselves in need of Meals on Wheels, we will champion initiatives that provide direct support to those who cannot afford meals, but don’t qualify for state or federal assistance.

We will also continue to pursue relationships with the health care industry to provide meals to food-insecure individuals with health risks, similar to a pilot project we conducted with Hennepin County Medical Center in the past year that provided meals to discharged patients. We will expand Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) outreach to seniors we work with who may not have the resources to access healthy food while also helping interested seniors fill out program applications.

Providing more choices for recipients

The senior population is not only growing, but their needs are becoming more diverse. To best serve our local seniors, we will expand cultural meal options and add more meal choices so meal recipients not only get nutritious food, but also food they love.

Making it easier to receive meals

Through technological and systematic improvements, we will make signing up for meals easier both online and by phone. It is especially important to us to make the enrollment process as simple as possible for vulnerable seniors who are contacting us in a state of great need.

We will also focus efforts to reach care providers and all who could benefit from a meal through targeted outreach. As the one service that provides both nutritious food and a daily wellness check, it’s important to us that all potential clients are aware of Meals on Wheels and all the options available to those who use this service.

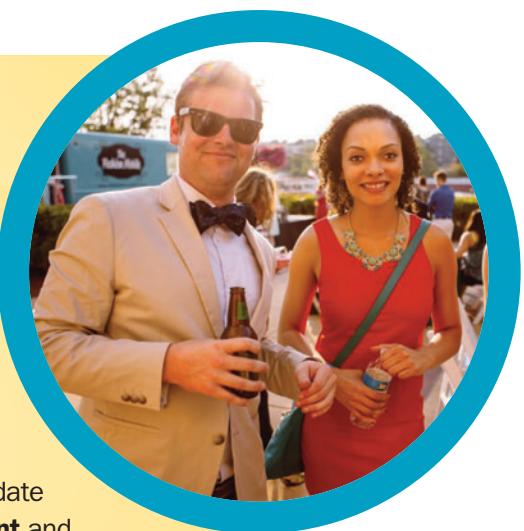

The continued support from our donors and volunteers gives us great optimism as we look forward to serving an ever-growing and increasingly diverse population of seniors. With your help, we can ensure that the Meals on Wheels Advantage exists for generations to come.
