Metro Meals on Wheels Newsletter – Annual Report 2018

WHEN A FRIENDLY VISIT BECOMES A LIFE-SAVING VISIT

Imagine if you lived alone and weren't able to get out of the house much anymore. How would it make you feel if you knew that you could count on someone to come to your door every weekday to chat for a few minutes?

This is the scenario for many people who get Meals on Wheels. And it's why the volunteers who deliver the meal bring much more than just food.

On a regular basis, our volunteers are providing a social outlet that meal recipients might otherwise be missing. Just the few minutes they spend at someone's door can make a big difference.

But on certain occasions, that social lifeline can literally save a life. Shawnda Hobson coordinates meal deliveries for the Community Emergency Services (CES) Meals on Wheels neighborhood program in Minneapolis. She shared some recent examples of when a volunteer stepped up to help someone in need.

The recipients' names have been changed to protect their privacy.

'Thank you for saving my aunt's life'

The volunteer knocked on Lorraine's door and she said, "I'm coming." He waited 3 or 4 minutes. He knocked again and Lorraine said "I'm coming, I'm coming, I'm coming." The volunteer said it sounded like she was going away from the door because her voice was becoming faint.

Then he went down to the front desk to get help. When they went back to her apartment, they found her dazed and confused and called 911. Lorraine's niece called Shawnda later that evening to thank them for saving her Aunt's life. She had experienced a stroke and was being cared for at the hospital.

The volunteer knew something wasn't right

Judith is a 91 and has been receiving meals since 2006. She usually would wait patiently at her front door for her driver to deliver her meals, but on one day in April, she was not at the door and she did not answer her phone when the volunteer called.

Look inside for our Annual Report

We're excited to share with you everything that you helped accomplish over the last year for Meals on Wheels!

Over the past year, we celebrated the first anniversary of the Kitchen of Opportunities, the first kitchen dedicated to serving Meals on Wheels recipients in the Twin Cities. Thanks to your support, this project has greatly improved access to the program for local seniors and has allowed us to serve the food that we know seniors want.

There's plenty more great news to share about what our volunteers and supporters helped accomplish over the past year. We hope you'll take a look!

Shawnda then called Judith's son John to let him know. He immediately rushed over to his mother's house. She had fallen on the floor and had broken several ribs. Jim got there in time to get her to the hospital where they were able to help her back on the path to rehabilitation.

'I knew help was on the way'

This May, a volunteer knocked on Clarence's door and heard him say, "Help me." The volunteer located a maintenance worker in the hallway who was able to open Clarence's door. He had fallen on the floor and could not get up on his own.

Clarence said was recently diagnosed with ALS, which caused him to lose strength and balance. He also said when he fell this he wasn't afraid because it was after 10 a.m. and he knew Meals on Wheels would be coming any minute to deliver his meals.

Thank you to all of you who support Meals on Wheels whether it's through volunteering, financial support or simply letting others know about this service. It's stories like these that prove that you truly are providing life-saving support!

In addition to our Annual Report, we wanted to update you on a few other Meals on Wheels tidbits:

Will you walk with us this Thanksgiving?

Start celebrating Thanksgiving early by joining Meals on Wheels at the Walk to End Hunger on Thanksgiving morning at the Mall of America. Last year, 230 Meals on Wheels supporters joined us to give back before giving thanks. The Walk to End Hunger is a family-friendly event chalk-full of kid-friendly activities. Walkers go at their own pace and determine their own distance.

Meals on Wheels featured in MPR story on loneliness

The key role our delivery volunteers play in the lives of meal recipients was recently highlighted in a great story on the health effects of loneliness from Minnesota Public Radio.

Thanks to all who joined us at the Meals on Wheels

Food Truck Rally!

More than 6,000 people joined us for the third annual Northeast Food Truck Rally, which raised $15,645 for Meals on Wheels. If you were among those who joined, thank you!
